FIRST GOLD & PRECIOUS METALS PRICE OUTLOOK SYMPOSIUM

Networking for industry players to gather information and insights into Gold and Silver Investing & Futures Trading

KUALA LUMPUR, 14 July 2014 - The inaugural Gold & Precious Metals Price Outlook Symposium, themed “Will Gold Still Glitter in 2014”, organised by Bursa Malaysia Berhad (“Bursa Malaysia” or the “Exchange”) on June 28, attracted more than 600 people, highlighting the investing interest of gold & precious metals in Malaysia.

Aimed at providing retail investors with information and insights into Gold and Silver investing and futures trading, the symposium featured an exciting line up of international speakers from World Gold Council, mining industry, goldsmiths & jewellers and professional gold investors & traders presenting on a wide range of topics of Gold and Silver.

Bursa Malaysia also honoured Top Futures brokers (TPs) trading in Gold Futures (FGLD) with the Gold Futures Contract Awards during the day-long event. In the Gold Futures Contract Brokers Award 2013 category, the top Gold Futures broker went to RHB Investment Bank while the second and third places honoured were Phillip Futures and LT International Futures respectively. The top Gold Futures professional trader (LOCAL) to grab the Gold Futures Contract Locals Award 2013 was Ms Leang Pek Har, followed by Mr James Kam Wei Lin and Mr Loo Cheong Hin, who came in second and third.
